

BOTH FACTIONS DENIED ARMS

Neutrality Laws Apply to Federals as Well as Rebels.

MEANS BIG LOSS FOR HUERTA

President Wilson Declares Neither Faction in Mexican Revolution Shall Be Favored With Ammunition—Awaits Conference With Wilson.

Washington, July 24.—President Wilson has determined that no faction in the present Mexican revolution shall obtain arms or ammunition from the United States and that neutrality must be observed in its strictest sense.

This was the interpretation of the neutrality laws decided upon after conferences with Senator Bacon and Representative Flood, chairmen of the two congressional committees on foreign relations.

While the Mexican rebels have been getting no arms heretofore, developments mean that the Huerta administration will be deprived of the privilege previously given the Madero government, and the United States will treat all sides alike in the present dispute.

The situation was precipitated by the recent complaints of the Constitutionalists and their sympathizers in this country that if the United States did not virtually assist the Huerta government by selling it munitions of war a termination of hostilities would be possible.

Sentiment for New Policy.

Sentiment in favor of a new policy grew in congress to such extent that a canvass was made of the foreign relations committees in both houses dealing with foreign relations.

It was found that there would be little objection to repealing the joint resolution of March 14, 1902, giving the president discretionary power to prohibit exportations of arms or munitions of war to countries where domestic violence existed, but permitting him to allow the legally constituted government of any country to buy war supplies as usual.

Senator Bacon, however, reiterated that the Huerta administration could not be considered a legitimate successor of the Madero regime or a legally constituted government.

There is, nevertheless, a firm feeling in congress in favor of lifting the embargo on arms and giving both sides an equal opportunity to equip themselves.

This sentiment gains favor especially among those who believe that the Carranza rebels have public opinion behind them in Mexico, and if given the arms with which to supply their large unequipped forces the revolution would end speedily in their favor.

For the present, however, the administration will issue orders to its agents everywhere to keep arms from entering the rebellion-torn country.

This will interfere materially with the plans of the Huerta forces, since orders for large supplies of arms and ammunition are said to have been placed with firms in the United States very recently.

The president examined other phases of the Mexican situation with Messrs. Bacon and Flood, who said later no action of any kind or pronouncement of policy was likely until after Ambassador Wilson had conferred with administration officers here.

MICHIGAN MINERS LOCKED OUT

Fifteen Thousand Are Forced Into Idleness.

Marquette, Mich., July 24.—Fifteen thousand mine workers in the Michigan copper country, embracing the counties of Houghton, Keweenaw and Ontonagon, were thrown out of employment when all copper mines in the district closed because of a strike order about to be issued by the Western Federation of Miners.

The operators closed the mines against all workers in the district, although only about 20 per cent of the men were affiliated with the miners' organization.

The trouble started some time ago when the union men submitted demands for recognition of the union, an eight-hour day, abolition of the one-man drilling machines and better working conditions.

"EXECUTED" MAN REVIVES.

Starke, Fla., July 24.—Harvey Mitchell, a negro, was hanged in the jail yard here for the murder of another negro and was declared dead at the end of thirty minutes by two physicians. After his body had been placed in a coffin Mitchell, whose neck had not been broken, revived and lived three hours.

The Spendthrift.

ATTACKS WILSON FOR DICTATING

Representative Wingo Says Wilson "Can't Drive Me."

DEMOCRATS SILENT ON TILT

Amendment Submitted by Arkansas Congressman Furnishes Basis of Attack—Bulkley of Ohio Undecided in His Position on Measure.

Washington, July 24.—President Wilson was bitterly assailed at a meeting of the Democratic members of the house committee on banking and currency. He was handled without gloves by Representative Wingo of Arkansas, an insurgent, who is opposed to the administration bill and who has fought it tooth and nail from the day it was presented.

Taking exceptions to the president's alleged interference with the duties of his legislative colleagues in congress, Mr. Wingo declared Mr. Wilson "may have driven the New Jersey Legislature, but he cannot drive me."

Mr. Wingo added that the administration could not swerve him from his course by depriving him of patronage.

The immediate cause of the trouble was an amendment presented by Mr. Wingo prohibiting any man who serves as a director of a national bank from acting in a like capacity in any other financial institution.

It was urged to Mr. Wingo that his amendment embodied one of the recommendations of the "money trust" committee, and that it was the opinion of the administration that none of these recommendations should be incorporated in the banking reform bill.

Turns Batteries on Wilson.

Mr. Wingo then turned his batteries on President Wilson in particular and the administration generally. The burden of his remarks was that the president had gone too far in dictating to congress, and that he, for one, would not tolerate interference by the White House.

As members of the committee decline to comment on the debate that took place behind closed doors, it was impossible to obtain Mr. Wingo's remarks in full, but some of the members declared that it was the hottest talk of the kind that has been uttered by a Democrat since the new administration took hold in March.

Representative Bulkley of Ohio gave notice that he was not yet prepared to decide his position in relation to the policy of placing the entire bank system of the country in the hands of the government-controlled board as proposed by the Glass bill and asked that the question of the powers and make-up of the proposed federal reserve board be again opened up for general discussion.

This is a basic point in the administration bill and one which President Wilson has championed in no uncertain way.

DEPUTIES SELL SHOW TICKETS

$66,000 Attachment Issued—Indians to Be Sent Home.

Denver, Colo., July 24.—Deputies, presided over by Commissioner of Safety Nisbet, received the dollars and half dollars Denver paid to see Buffalo Bill's Wild West and Pawnee Bill's Far East.

Other deputies—twenty in all—were stationed about the grounds, watching the show's production.

They were there at the order of Judge Perry, who issued an attachment asked for by the United States Lithographing & Printing Co., Chicago, which claims the show owes the company $66,000 for lithographing and printing.

As a result of the attachment, it is said the show will remain here until the matter is adjusted. The 114 Indians will be sent back to the Pine Ridge Sioux reservation.

INVESTIGATE WOMAN'S DEATH

Minot, N. D., Officials Order Analysis of Contents of Stomach.

Minot, N. D., 24.—Officials are making an investigation of the cause of death of Mrs. Nell Brownlee, and have ordered an analysis of the contents of her stomach. Retiring in the evening apparently in the best of health, Mr. Brownlee says he was awakened at 1:30 a. m. by a noise in the kitchen. He found his wife in terrible agony, lying on the floor and almost unconscious. Within five minutes she died. The body was shipped to Brookville, Pa., for burial.

STATE OF SIEGE IS PLACED IN VATICAN

Armed Gendarmes Control Swiss Guards and Expat Leaders.

Rome, July 24.—Throughout the day the Vatican was a veritable state of siege. This was the outcome of the mutiny of the Swiss guards, whose demands, in the form of a memorial relating their grievances and setting forth the conditions on which they would remain in the service, were flatly rejected.

Three leaders in the movement were expelled from the Vatican. Four others left and twelve have requested leave to depart for their homes in October.

Those who left were accompanied to the gates of the Vatican by their comrades. At the moment of separation they cried: "Viva Garibaldi!" Some of them joined in singing the "Marsellaise."

Never before was such a scene presented in front of the Vatican.

The guards were relieved of their cartridges, and even their rifles were taken from them, as it was discovered that they had succeeded in concealing cartridges.

Count Ceccopio, commander of the gendarmes, has been ordered to hold his men in readiness for emergencies. They are in control of all the exits.

The entire neighborhood is patrolled by strong forces of police.

USE MUCH CHOLERA SERUM

University Farm Officials Fear Disease for Next Two Months.

St. Paul, July 24.—There is a heavy demand on the hog cholera serum plant at the university farm, and the producing facilities have been overtaxed to meet the needs of hog owners, according to Dr. H. P. Hoskins, director.

There is some cholera in the state at present, Dr. H. M. Reynolds, chief veterinarian at the university farm, reports.

"We are afraid of the cholera in August and September, especially, and are expecting a bad time of it," said Dr. Reynolds. "Every effort will be made to increase the production of serum here in order to have a large supply on hand in case of an emergency. The farmers and hog growers of the state are being warned by bulletins from our office and by the local veterinarians, and we hope to be able to control the disease."

Between 30,000 and 40,000 cubic centimeters of the cholera serum was sent out from the station during the week.

CONVICTS RIOT IN PRISON

Prisoners Bombard Guards With Eggs Until Given Freedom to Roam.

Osnating, N. Y., July 24.—After a day of disturbances by several hundred of Sing Sing's 1,500 convicts, extra guards were called upon to be in readiness for further trouble which the authorities fear may come.

The fire in the prison threw 213 second and third term prisoners out of employment in the shops. They complained of the food, hurled bread and eggs about, and protested against being locked in their cells.

The convicts backed against a mass of coal, picked up anthracite lumps and were ready to engage in battle. At this juncture a countermarching order came that they were to be allowed to roam the prison yard.

OIL FINE IN SCHOOL BONDS

Texas Senate Quickly Finds Way to Invest $500,000 Judgment.

Austin, Tex., July 24.—The state senate passed a bill to invest in school bonds the $500,000 judgment collected from the Standard Oil company of New Jersey for violations of the Texas anti-trust laws. The bill now goes to the house.

TARIFF BILL MAY PASS IN AUGUST

Even Republicans Oppose a Prolonged Filibuster.

CURRENCY BILL DOUBTFUL.

Littlefield, Mentioned by Mulhall, Had an Excellent Reputation When He Was in Congress—Owen's Efforts to Make Transportation Sanitary—Williams Issues Warning to Bristow.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 24.—[Special.]—If the Penrose idea should prevail—that is, that the Republicans cannot prevent the passage of the tariff bill and should not filibuster against it—there is a possibility of its passing before the end of August. In fact, it might get through in two or three weeks. Senator Penrose does not believe there is any advantage in going beyond reasonable discussion.

When the last Democratic tariff bill was before the senate Penrose's colleague, then Senator Quay, deliberately started out to talk the bill to death unless certain concessions were granted to Pennsylvania industries, and he forced them into the bill. At that time, however, there was a strong protective element among the Democrats of the senate who encouraged the Quay filibuster.

Still Uncertain.

Of course no one ventures to assert what the currency bill will be when it finally passes; but, more than that, no one is willing to risk his judgment that a currency bill will pass at this session of congress. Perhaps it will require a little prodding on the part of President Wilson to make his party friends in congress realize that he meant just what he said when he asked for currency legislation in spite of high temperature in Washington and a desire to get home on the part of congressmen. At all events, it is believed that the house must pass some sort of measure.

Littlefield Independent.

When Charles E. Littlefield, so prominent in Mulhall's tale, was in congress he was regarded as independent and never believed to be allied with or influenced by any interests. He was the one man who defended the rights of Brigham Roberts, the Utah polygamist, to be sworn in as a member and to be tried afterward on the merits of the case. He was one of the very few that opposed his party in legislation affecting the new possessions after the Spanish war.

Newlands' Words.

Senator Newlands has a way of bringing big words together so as to attract attention. He has talked "coordination" and "co-operation" with "conservation" so much as to bring the words into senatorial prominence. It was he that sprung the plan of "mediation, conciliation and arbitration" which has figured in the legislation for the threatened railroad strike. In fact, before the strike seemed imminent Newlands had introduced and passed the bill, which was a big thing.

Make Transportation Sanitary.

While Senator Owen of Oklahoma finds many stumbling blocks in the way of his bill for a department of health, he may be able to get consideration of his bill for the inspection of all means of carrying passengers over interstate routes. The average traveler would feel more comfortable if he knew that the germs had been removed from the sleeping car blankets, the plush car seats and other places where contagious diseases lurk.

Years ago, in the days of passses, a Washington correspondent was sore at the sleeping car company because it was heartless in the matter of passses. "I'll tell you how we will bring them to time," he said, "we'll have a bill introduced to have all curtains, blankets, and everything else, fumigated at the end of each day or whenever used. We'll hold up the bill if they come across with passses, but put it through if they don't." The scheme was never tried. Of course, the Owen proposition has no bearing on passses, as passses have gone forever. The Oklahoma senator is very much interested in public health.

Warned by Williams.

"Take this in time," suggested Senator Williams to Senator Bristow, after the latter had introduced his resolution about Bryan's salary. "With such a showing you are in danger of becoming known as a humorist. They say it is fatal; they said that about Sunset Cox, John Allen and myself. So think it over well. You may land in the humorist class if you don't watch out."

Lewis in Demand.

No senator is sought after more than Senator Lewis of Illinois. He is called out of the senate twice as often as any other man. He is especially desired by newspaper men because he has the news and knows how to tell it; besides, being very accommodating and wishing to help his friends of the press. Jim Ham is not averse to publicity. He can stand it to see his name in print. The time was when he preferred to have his name printed, even with ridicule and adverse comment, rather than to be ignored. Just now he seems to be in the light more than ever, and this has no reference to his brilliant whiskers.

BREACH IS GROWING WIDER

Tammany Organization May Try to Override Vetoes.

Albany, N. Y., July 24.—Not in years has there been such a condition of uncertainty in legislative and official circles in this state as exists at present. The constantly widening breach between Governor Sulzer and the Democratic organization forces led by Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany chieftain, with rumors of an impending attempt to impeach the executive, has caused a situation unprecedented in state politics.

When the legislature reconvenes Tuesday, the leaders plan a quick cleanup on pending legislation, then, after a recess of three or four weeks, to return and pass over the governor's veto measures disapproved by him which they believe should become laws.

DEADLOCK REMAINS ON MEDIATION PLANS

Roads Make Concessions But Not Enough to Start Work.

New York, July 24.—Efforts of the federal mediators under the Newlands act to have the Eastern railroads and their 80,000 trainmen and conductors reach an arbitration understanding, resulted in concessions on the part of the roads, according to unofficial statements.

The concessions were not sufficient to satisfy the men, however, and the deadlock remained unbroken.

The mediators met the men's committee and later met with the managers. The roads, it was learned, consented to withdraw their demands that all of their eight grievances against their employees should be submitted to arbitration along with the men's wage demands. They were insistent, however, that some, at least, of the demands be taken up.

The position taken by the roads was met with an unaltered attitude by the men who reiterated that a strike was certain if the managers insisted upon arbitration of questions raised subsequent to the recent agreement to arbitrate the issues raised by the men.

The mediators continued to express hopes of clearing up the situation within a few days.

CHINA RELYING UPON NAVY

Government Expects Ships to Sink Rebel Transports.

Peking, July 24.—The government professes to view the revolutionary movement in the south without alarm. The southern troops from Nanking, known as the "Punish Yuan" expedition, have suffered a fresh reverse and taken up a strong position to await the arrival of the Canton expedition, expected to land 15,000 troops at Pukow.

The government declares that the navy will sink every ship engaged in transporting the Canton expedition if ever it starts.

President Yuan Shi Kai's firm determination to suppress the rebellion is restoring confidence among the wavering Chinese and has elicited the approval of all legations with the exception of the Russian and Japanese.

EXPLODES BLANK CARTRIDGE

Socialist Club Member Startles House of Commons.

London, July 24.—There was another brief scare in the house of commons when a blank cartridge was exploded.

The Right Honorable Reginald McKenna, home secretary, was replying to James Kier Hardie's question about the rearrest of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst when a shot was fired from the strangers' gallery.

The culprit, a man named Washington and a member of a Socialist club at Leeds, was immediately seized and ejected from the building.

Anthony N. Brady Had a Most Interesting Career.

New York, July 24.—The death of Anthony N. Brady, which is reported to have occurred suddenly in London from acute indigestion, was a shock to the financier's friends here, for Mr. Brady had sailed from New York only a week ago apparently in good health.

Mr. Brady's seventy-two years' career was an interesting one. He started as cashier in a hotel barber shop in Albany and ended his career as a recognized power in the world of finance. The extent of Mr. Brady's fortune is unknown but an estimate published places it at $25,000,000 and "probably more."

NUMBER OF DEAD NOT KNOWN

State and Local Authorities Promise Thorough Investigation of Circumstances Which Led to Catastrophe. Public Funeral Probable.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 24.—Thirteen bodies, burned beyond recognition, were recovered from the ruins of the overall factory of the Binghamton Clothing company.

The first was found near the center of the debris-strewn cellar. Eleven more were uncovered at a point near where the stairway led to the entrance of the building.

The thirteenth body was identified as that of John Schermerhorn, the engineer, by a pair of rubber heels he is known to have worn.

One of the charred bodies is believed to be that of Nellie Connor, the forewoman, who sacrificed her life in an effort to save those in her charge. A diamond ring and diamond earrings worn by Miss Connor were found.

Jewelry Clue to Identities.

Rings and other jewelry found near the bodies are expected to aid in further identifications.

A partial list, compiled by District Attorney Meagher, contains the names of seven identified dead, thirty reported as missing and fifty-seven survivors, some of whom were injured.

At least 111 persons are said to have been in the building when the fire broke out.

State and local authorities promise a thorough investigation into the circumstances which made possible the death toll. Coroner Seymour of Whitney Point announced he would begin an inquest at once at the court house.

A public funeral probably will be held for the unidentified victims, in which the clergy of various denominations will participate, and it is planned to erect a monument to record the names of those who perished. A meeting of the mayor and clergy will be held to arrange the details.

The guards were relieved of their cartridges, and even their rifles were taken from them, as it was discovered that they had succeeded in concealing cartridges.

Count Ceccopere, commander of the gendarmes, has been ordered to hold his men in readiness for emergencies. They are in control of all the exits.

The entire neighborhood is patrolled by strong forces of police.

USE MUCH CHOLERA SERUM

University Farm Officials Fear Disease for Next Two Months.

St. Paul, July 24.—There is a heavy demand on the hog cholera serum plant at the university farm, and the producing facilities have been overtaxed to meet the needs of hog owners, according to Dr. H. P. Hoskins, director.

There is some cholera in the state at present, Dr. H. M. Reynolds, chief veterinarian at the university farm, reports.

"We are afraid of the cholera in August and September, especially, and are expecting a bad time of it," said Dr. Reynolds. "Every effort will be made to increase the production of serum here in order to have a large supply on hand in case of an emergency. The farmers and hog growers of the state are being warned by bulletins from our office and by the local veterinarians, and we hope to be able to control the disease."

Between 30,000 and 40,000 cubic centimeters of the cholera serum was sent out from the station during the week.

CONVICTS RIOT IN PRISON

Prisoners Bombard Guards With Eggs Until Given Freedom to Room.

Osnating, N. Y., July 24.—After a day of disturbances by several hundred of Sing Sing's 1,500 convicts, extra guards were called upon to be in readiness for further trouble which the authorities fear may come.

The fire in the prison threw 213 second and third term prisoners out of employment in the shops. They complained of the food, hurled bread and eggs about, and protested against being locked in their cells.

The convicts backed against a mass of coal, picked up anthracite lumps and were ready to engage in battle. At this juncture a countermarching order came that they were to be allowed to roam the prison yard.

OIL FINE IN SCHOOL BONDS

Texas Senate Quickly Finds Way to Invest $500,000 Judgment.

Austin, Tex., July 24.—The state senate passed a bill to invest in school bonds the $500,000 judgment collected from the Standard Oil company of New Jersey for violations of the Texas anti-trust laws. The bill now goes to the house.

TARIFF BILL MAY PASS IN AUGUST

Even Republicans Oppose a Prolonged Filibuster.

CURRENCY BILL DOUBTFUL.

Littlefield, Mentioned by Mulhall, Had an Excellent Reputation When He Was in Congress—Owen's Efforts to Make Transportation Sanitary—Williams Issues Warning to Bristow.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, July 24.—[Special.]—If the Penrose idea should prevail—that is, that the Republicans cannot prevent the passage of the tariff bill and should not filibuster against it—there is a possibility of its passing before the end of August. In fact, it might get through in two or three weeks. Senator Penrose does not believe there is any advantage in going beyond reasonable discussion.

When the last Democratic tariff bill was before the senate Penrose's colleague, then Senator Quay, deliberately started out to talk the bill to death unless certain concessions were granted to Pennsylvania industries, and he forced them into the bill. At that time, however, there was a strong protective element among the Democrats of the senate who encouraged the Quay filibuster.

Still Uncertain.

Of course no one ventures to assert what the currency bill will be when it finally passes; but, more than that, no one is willing to risk his judgment that a currency bill will pass at this session of congress. Perhaps it will require a little prodding on the part of President Wilson to make his party friends in congress realize that he meant just what he said when he asked for currency legislation in spite of high temperature in Washington and a desire to get home on the part of congressmen. At all events, it is believed that the house must pass some sort of measure.

Littlefield Independent.

When Charles E. Littlefield, so prominent in Mulhall's tale, was in congress he was regarded as independent and never believed to be allied with or influenced by any interests. He was the one man who defended the rights of Brigham Roberts, the Utah polygamist, to be sworn in as a member and to be tried afterward on the merits of the case. He was one of the very few that opposed his party in legislation affecting the new possessions after the Spanish war.

Newlands' Words.

Senator Newlands has a way of bringing big words together so as to attract attention. He has talked "coordination" and "co-operation" with "conservation" so much as to bring the words into senatorial prominence. It was he that sprung the plan of "mediation, conciliation and arbitration" which has figured in the legislation for the threatened railroad strike. In fact, before the strike seemed imminent Newlands had introduced and passed the bill, which was a big thing.

Make Transportation Sanitary.

While Senator Owen of Oklahoma finds many stumbling blocks in the way of his bill for a department of health, he may be able to get consideration of his bill for the inspection of all means of carrying passengers over interstate routes. The average traveler would feel more comfortable if he knew that the germs had been removed from the sleeping car blankets, the plush car seats and other places where contagious diseases lurk.

Years ago, in the days of passes, a Washington correspondent was sore at the sleeping car company because it was heartless in the matter of passes. "I'll tell you how we will bring them to you," he said, "we'll have a bill introduced to have all curtains, blankets, and everything else, fumigated at the end of each day or whenever used. We'll hold up the bill if they come across with passes, but put it through if they don't." The scheme was never tried. Of course, the Owen proposition has no bearing on passes, as passes have gone forever. The Oklahoma senator is very much interested in public health.

Warned by Williams.

"Take this in time," suggested Senator Williams to Senator Bristow, after the latter had introduced his resolution about Bryan's salary. "With such a showing you are in danger of becoming known as a humorist. They say it is fatal; they said that about Sunset Cox, John Allen and myself. So think it over well. You may land in the humorist class if you don't watch out."

Lewis in Demand.

No senator is sought after more than Senator Lewis of Illinois. He is called out of the senate twice as often as any other man. He is especially desired by newspaper men because he has the news and knows how to tell it; besides, being very accommodating and wishing to help his friends of the press. Jim Ham is not averse to publicity. He can stand it to see his name in print. The time was when he preferred to have his name printed, even with ridicule and adverse comment, rather than to be ignored. Just now he seems to be in the line light more than ever, and this has no reference to his brilliant whiskers.

BREACH IS GROWING WIDER

Tammany Organization May Try to Override Vetoes.

Albany, N. Y., July 24.—Not in years has there been such a condition of uncertainty in legislative and official circles in this state as exists at present. The constantly widening breach between Governor Sulzer and the Democratic organization forces led by Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany chieftain, with rumors of an impending attempt to impeach the executive, has caused a situation unprecedented in state politics.

When the legislature reconvenes Tuesday, the leaders plan a quick cleanup on pending legislation, then, after a recess of three or four weeks, to return and pass over the governor's veto measures disapproved by him which they believe should become laws.

DEADLOCK REMAINS ON MEDIATION PLANS

Roads Make Concessions But Not Enough to Start Work.

New York, July 24.—Efforts of the federal mediators under the Newlands act to have the Eastern railroads and their 80,000 trainmen and conductors reach an arbitration understanding, resulted in concessions on the part of the roads, according to unofficial statements.

The concessions were not sufficient to satisfy the men, however, and the deadlock remained unbroken.

The mediators met the men's committee and later met with the managers. The roads, it was learned, consented to withdraw their demands that all of their eight grievances against their employees should be submitted to arbitration along with the men's wage demands. They were insistent, however, that some, at least, of the demands be taken up.

The position taken by the roads was met with an unaltered attitude by the men who reiterated that a strike was certain if the managers insisted upon arbitration of questions raised subsequent to the recent agreement to arbitrate the issues raised by the men. The mediators continued to express hopes of clearing up the situation within a few days.

CHINA RELYING UPON NAVY

Government Expects Ships to Sink Rebel Transports.

Peking, July 24.—The government professes to view the revolutionary movement in the south without alarm. The southern troops from Nanking, known as the "Punish Yuan" expedition, have suffered a fresh reverse and taken up a strong position to await the arrival of the Canton expedition, expected to land 15,000 troops at Pukow.

The government declares that the navy will sink every ship engaged in transporting the Canton expedition if ever it starts.

President Yuan Shi Kai's firm determination to suppress the rebellion is restoring confidence among the wavering Chinese and has elicited the approval of all legations with the exception of the Russian and Japanese.

EXPLODES BLANK CARTRIDGE

Socialist Club Member Startles House of Commons.

London, July 24.—There was another brief scare in the house of commons when a blank cartridge was exploded.

The Right Honorable Reginald McKenna, home secretary, was replying to James Kier Hardie's question about the rearrest of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst when a shot was fired from the strangers' gallery.

The culprit, a man named Washington and a member of a Socialist club at Leeds, was immediately seized and ejected from the building.

The two companies are directed to show cause why the circuit court's dissolution decree against the so called tobacco trust should not be corrected to conform with the mandate of the United States supreme court.

DIES SUDDENLY IN LONDON

Anthony N. Brady Had a Most Interesting Career.

New York, July 24.—The death of Anthony N. Brady, which is reported to have occurred suddenly in London from acute indigestion, was a shock to the financier's friends here, for Mr. Brady had sailed from New York only a week ago apparently in good health.

Mr. Brady's seventy-two years' career was an interesting one. He started as cashier in a hotel barber shop in Albany and ended his career as a recognized power in the world of finance. The extent of Mr. Brady's fortune is unknown but an estimate published places it at $25,000,000 and "probably more."

Corpses of Girls and Women Burned Beyond Recognition.

NUMBER OF DEAD NOT KNOWN

State and Local Authorities Promise Thorough Investigation of Circumstances Which Led to Catastrophe. Public Funeral Probable.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 24.—Thirteen bodies, burned beyond recognition, were recovered from the ruins of the overall factory of the Binghamton Clothing company.

The first was found near the center of the debris-strewn cellar. Eleven more were uncovered at a point near where the stairway led to the entrance of the building.

The thirteenth body was identified as that of John Schermerhorn, the engineer, by a pair of rubber heels he is known to have worn.

One of the charred bodies is believed to be that of Nellie Connor, the forewoman, who sacrificed her life in an effort to save those in her charge. A diamond ring and diamond earrings worn by Miss Connor were found.

Jewelry Clue to Identities.

Rings and other jewelry found near the bodies are expected to aid in further identifications.

A partial list, compiled by District Attorney Meagher, contains the names of seven identified dead, thirty reported as missing and fifty-seven survivors, some of whom were injured.

At least 111 persons are said to have been in the building when the fire broke out.

State and local authorities promise a thorough investigation into the circumstances which made possible the death toll. Coroner Seymour of Whitney Point announced he would begin an inquest at once at the court house.

A public funeral probably will be held for the unidentified victims, in which the clergy of various denominations will participate, and it is planned to erect a monument to record the names of those who perished. A meeting of the mayor and clergy will be held to arrange the details.

NATIONS AGREE TO BAN OPIUM

Thirty-five Sign Convention at The Hague.

Washington, July 24.—Dr. Hamilton Wright, who, with Lloyd Bryce, American minister at The Hague, represented the United States at the recent international opium conference there, returned to Washington and reported orally the results of his mission to Acting Secretary Moore.

Dr. Wright reported that up to date thirty-five governments have signed the opium convention, including thirteen nations that joined in the first conference in Shanghai after the movement had been initiated by the United States.

Some of these countries, notably Great Britain and Germany, are withholding their ratifications until the latest moment, taking the ground that to be really effective the convention must have the unanimous support of all nations.

So far twenty-six governments have agreed to deposit their ratifications and they probably will be received at The Hague December 31.

Ten governments have not signed the convention.

Rumania Proposes Immediate Cessation of Fighting.

Sofia, July 24.—Replying to a third telegram from King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, King Charles of Rumania announces that he has instructed his government to propose to Serbia and Greece an immediate cessation of hostilities pending formal signature of an armistice.

The Bulgarian delegates are expected to start for Bucharest at the end of the week and negotiations for peace will begin next week.

It is reported the powers have assured Bulgaria it is needless for her to occupy herself with Turkey's eruption in Thrace as they will deal with it themselves.

Mr. Wise States His Position

To the Editor of the Brainerd Dispatch:—

Within the past week, quite without solicitation on my part, I have received some unusual advertising in connection with my attitude toward the proposed street railway franchise which is before the city council.

As the local paper has not, for lack of space, up to this time been able to give a full and accurate report of the matter, I take this method of explaining to the citizens of Brainerd, as briefly as possible my position, and will follow it by excerpts from the remarks made by some of the business men of Brainerd who were called upon to discuss the matter at the meeting Saturday night.

First—I am most heartily in favor of the prompt construction of a street railway in Brainerd and its connection with the several towns on Cuyuna range.

Second—I am not seeking a franchise for such a railroad for myself or any of my friends.

Third—But I am a citizen of Brainerd of long standing, and one who most earnestly hopes for its future prosperity. I have known of serious mistakes made by our city in the past, due to the lack of caution in dealing with such franchise matters as the one under consideration, and I consider it my right as well as my duty to investigate, to the small extent that my ability and knowledge permitted, the merits of the franchise presented to our city council by Mr. Reid and his friends.

What possible objection could the promoters of any legitimate enterprise have to the few pertinent questions I asked? and what justification could there possibly be for the insulting words used to me verbally and the scurrilous language published in Duluth and Brainerd?

Was it a crime to inquire who are these people who ask of the city of Brainerd this valuable and far-reaching franchise that is to endure for twenty-five years, and what is their financial standing?

It is customary when a stranger comes to town to engage in business, for him to give his banking reference and refer to the people in other communities with whom he has done business in the line he proposes to take up here.

Have the promoters of this street railway satisfied any member of the city council or any citizen of Brainerd in this direction?

I think not. Do we want to give away this valuable privilege without knowing something definite about the financial standing of these applicants?

Was there any impropriety in seeking to learn if the franchise as it received its first reading, fully protected the city in the matter of earnings on stated capitalization—the right of the city to regulate the service to be rendered and to designate the streets on which the tracks should be laid? Was it injudicious to suggest that some time the rates of fare be made six rides for a quarter or eight for a quarter within certain restricted hours of the day to help out the school children and laboring men?

If the asking of these and a few more civil but serious questions of light tenor were a misdemeanor deserving of the odium that the disappointed projectors of this paper street railway scheme have attempted to cast upon me, then I plead guilty of stirring up all this fuss.

But I will leave it to the inherent good sense and justice that are possessed by the citizens of Brainerd, to absolve me of any intention of doing any thing except that which would aid in safeguarding the interests of Brainerd now, and in the future.

My long residence here, my willingness to aid with advice, work, and contributions, any enterprise that was for the good of Brainerd, should, and I am satisfied does, convince everyone that I have no motive in mixing up with this affair other than to make sure that when such a franchise was granted the interests of the city were fully and carefully protected, and that I believe can be done, while at the same time a franchise that is liberal and comprehensive and that one that will appeal to honest and legitimate interurban railway constructors can be prepared and passed by our city council.

In conclusion, let me suggest to our council that they take expert advice as to the form and substance of such a franchise, and that they require any applicants whoever they may be, to satisfy them as to their financial standing, and submit in detail their plans so that all charged with the responsibility of disposing of so important a matter may have all the information necessary to act intelligently.

Thanking you for the privilege of stating my position in this matter I am,

Yours truly,

R. R. WISE.

Senator Chas. D. Johnson spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman—I did not come here tonight with the idea of entering into a discussion of the subject before the meeting. I have only casually considered the proposition presented by the promoters of this street railway. Of course we want a street railway, but I am not one of those citizens—if there are any such—who want a street railway at any cost.

The time is fast fading away when municipalities are giving away franchises and in the light of past experience, it is high time we consider and know what we are to receive in return for what we are to give.

I regret that whoever saw fit to come here and try to launch an enterprise of this kind, could not come and present their proposition in a way and manner, befitting gentlemen of reason and fairness.

Mr. Wise States His Position

To the Editor of the Brainerd Dispatch:—
Within the past week, quite without solicitation on my part, I have received some unusual advertising in connection with my attitude toward the proposed street railway franchise which is before the city council.

As the local paper has not, for lack of space, up to this time been able to give a full and accurate report of the matter, I take this method of explaining to the citizens of Brainerd, as briefly as possible my position, and will follow it by excerpts from the remarks made by some of the business men of Brainerd who were called upon to discuss the matter at the meeting Saturday night.

First—I am most heartily in favor of the prompt construction of a street railway in Brainerd and its connection with the several towns on Cuyuna range.

Second—I am not seeking a franchise for such a railroad for myself or any of my friends.

Third—But I am a citizen of Brainerd of long standing, and one who most earnestly hopes for its future prosperity. I have known of serious mistakes made by our city in the past, due to the lack of caution in dealing with such franchise matters as the one under consideration, and I consider it my right as well as my duty to investigate, to the small extent that my ability and knowledge permitted, the merits of the franchise presented to our city council by Mr. Reid and his friends.

What possible objection could the promoters of any legitimate enterprise have to the few pertinent questions I asked? and what justification could there possibly be for the insulting words used to me verbally and the scurrilous language published in Duluth and Brainerd?

Was it a crime to inquire who are these people who ask of the city of Brainerd this valuable and far-reaching franchise that is to endure for twenty-five years, and what is their financial standing?

It is customary when a stranger comes to town to engage in business, for him to give his banking reference and refer to the people in other communities with whom he has done business in the line he proposes to take up here.

Have the promoters of this street railway satisfied any member of the city council or any citizen of Brainerd in this direction?

I think not. Do we want to give away this valuable privilege without knowing something definite about the financial standing of these applicants?

Was there any impropriety in seeking to learn if the franchise as it received its first reading, fully protected the city in the matter of earnings on stated capitalization—the right of the city to regulate the service to be rendered and to designate the streets on which the tracks should be laid? Was it injudicious to suggest that some time the rates of fare be made six rides for a quarter or eight for a quarter within certain restricted hours of the day to help out the school children and laboring men?

If the asking of these and a few more civil but serious questions of light tenor were a misdemeanor deserving of the odium that the disappointed projectors of this paper street railway scheme have attempted to cast upon me, then I plead guilty of stirring up all this fuss.

But I will leave it to the inherent good sense and justice that are possessed by the citizens of Brainerd, to absolve me of any intention of doing any thing except that which would aid in safeguarding the interests of Brainerd now, and in the future.

My long residence here, my willingness to aid with advice, work, and contributions, any enterprise that was for the good of Brainerd, should, and I am satisfied does, convince everyone that I have no motive in mixing up with this affair other than to make sure that when such a franchise was granted the interests of the city were fully and carefully protected, and that I believe can be done, while at the same time a franchise that is liberal and comprehensive and that one that will appeal to honest and legitimate interurban railway constructors can be prepared and passed by our city council.

In conclusion, let me suggest to our council that they take expert advice as to the form and substance of such a franchise, and that they require any applicants whoever they may be, to satisfy them as to their financial standing, and submit in detail their plans so that all charged with the responsibility of disposing of so important a matter may have all the information necessary to act intelligently.

Thanking you for the privilege of stating my position in this matter I am,

Yours truly,
R. R. WISE.
Senator Chas. D. Johnson spoke as follows:

Mr. Chairman—I did not come here tonight with the idea of entering into a discussion of the subject before the meeting. I have only casually considered the proposition presented by the promoters of this street railway. Of course we want a street railway, but I am not one of those citizens—if there are any such—who want a street railway at any cost.

The time is fast fading away when municipalities are giving away franchises and in the light of past experience, it is high time we consider and know what we are to receive in return for what we are to give.

I regret that whoever saw fit to come here and try to launch an enterprise of this kind, could not come and present their proposition in a way and manner, befitting gentlemen of reason and fairness.

As one citizen I resent the insulting manner in which this meeting was called; I say I resent it, and words fail me in expressing my contempt and indignation at the wording of that call, where in one of our citizens is belittled and his motive in looking after the city's interest is questioned and ridiculed. And I have never known of any one seeking to secure something pursuing a course as undiplomatic as has Mr. Reid.

Mr. Chairman, do you invite criticism of the proposed franchise? I have some to offer. It is proposed to construct two miles the first two years and no provision is made for any other extension. The old street car line was three and a half miles long, and less to start with would be useless. I would want the council to approve the streets upon which the tracks are to be laid. Now look at the section whereby they propose to give the city something after certain expenses, interests, etc., are deducted. Would it not be well for the city to have a proportion of the gross earnings, thereby eliminating the vexatious question of what are legitimate expenses? Why gentlemen, hell will be operating a municipal ice plant before this city would receive anything under the provision of that sections as it now reads.

TO BOULEVARD SIXTH STREET

Improvement Proposed to Extend
From Main Street to Beautiful
Gregory Park

MANY CITIZENS CONTRIBUTING

$1,200 to be Raised for Two Street
Intersections—Plan to be Submitted to Council

The idea of continuing the cement paving of North Sixth street from Main street to beautiful Gregory park, as championed by the Dispatch and many public spirited citizens, has found favor and a movement is now on foot to have the two blocks paved clear to the park. The street is 50 feet wide. In the center it is proposed to have a 10 foot boulevard and this will leave a 20 foot roadway on each side. The park board, it is proposed, will take charge of the boulevard strip.

A tentative sketch or plan has been drawn up and the whole plan will be submitted to the council for its consideration. There seems little objection on the part of property owners to continuing the paving to the park.

Two street intersections will have to be laid and as the general fund of the city will not stand such a levy, the money is being raised by private subscription.

"This is no begging proposition," said one of the citizens who is deeply interested in the improvement, and who, by the way, does not live on the street. "It should be a matter of city pride to have this street beautified in this manner and people all over Brainerd are contributing to have these intersections put in and which will insure paving from the depot to the park. Why J. C. Barber, who does not live in Brainerd but at his summer home on Nokay lake, gave $50.

"There is no impression so lasting as a first impression and many a traveler gains his first idea of Brainerd when he looks up Sixth street and sees the park. And many visitors, between trains, walk to the park. As one Sioux City, Iowa, man said to George A. Keene: 'I had no idea you had such a beautiful park in Brainerd.'"

To date $800 has been raised for street intersections and there is no doubt that the remaining $400 will soon be pledged. Then the whole proposition, carefully drawn up, will be submitted to the city council for its approval.

BUYS MILLINERY STORE

Mrs. George Terry, of Waterloo, Ia., Buys Mrs. J. K. Pearce's Millinery

Mrs. George Terry, of Waterloo, Iowa, an experienced milliner and business woman, has purchased the millinery and ladies furnishing stock of Mrs. J. K. Pearce, in the Pearce block and has taken a year lease of the store with the privilege of a three year renewal.

Mrs. Terry will inaugurate a sweeping clearance sale, and will discontinue the line of ladies furnishings. The summer stock of trimmed hats as well as untrimmed shapes for ladies, misses and children will be cleaned out regardless of cost.

The store is to be altered in various ways. Partitions are being taken out, the room enlarged and plumbing is to be installed. A feature of interest to the ladies of Brainerd and vicinity will be the beauty parlor to be presided over by Mrs. C. M. Goble, of Waterloo, Iowa. Here manicuring, shampooing, hair dressing and face massage will be done and scalp treatments given. Mrs. Terry will also carry a large line of hair goods.

Mrs. Pearce, who was one of the prominent milliners of Brainerd for many years, will retire from business.

BARNUM & BAILEY SHOW TOMORROW

Parade at 10 O'clock to Have 500
Horses in Line—Five Bands—
Other Big Features

ONE PERFORMANCE AT 2 P. M.

Show Starts With Cleopatra—Circus
Has 3 Rings, 2 Stages, ...
Quarter Mile Track

'Boys' who can still hark back to the old-time stunt with the water pail, and 'girls' who in other days clung to their mothers in awe while bespangled performers flirted with death, can romp to the show grounds tomorrow and see the latest and best development of the circus ideas as carried out by the Barnum & Bailey show. The 'boys' can take a long their sons, and the 'girls' their daughters and for three, happy glorious hours travel back over the road to yesterday. There is nothing like a circus. Its possibilities are limitless. It provides enjoyment, clean cut and refreshing.

But that is not all. It renews the springs of youth as nothing else can. It harks one back to the days when all things were real and worth while; when analysis was naught and when seeing was believing, and when seeing and believing was a delight that lasted for many days. There are circuses and circuses, but there is only one Barnum and Bailey's. It has been self-styled "the greatest show on earth." None has appeared to dispute this claim and this year's circus lives up more generously to its trademarked title than ever before, from all accounts.

There will be but few sleepy heads among the youngsters tomorrow morning. Kids that ordinarily kick upon getting up at a reasonable hour to do the chores will sleep with one eye open tonight and be on hand early tomorrow morning when the horse fair with more than 500 horses in line. Then there will be open cages—a long string of elephants—two caravans of camels—five bands of music, including a woman's military brass band—ornate floats—gayly caparisoned horses with men and women riders—clowns, in fact, all the necessary ingredients used in the compounding of a first class circus cavalcade—only that there will be more and more of everything than ever before.

One performance will be given at 2 o'clock P. M. and this will be complete in every detail.

Tomorrow morning tickets may be bought at Central Drug store at no advance in prices.

CITY PREPARING FOR VISITORS

Brainerd City Band Will Give Concert at Depot Park in Evening
—Ball Game 6 P. M.

Friday, July 25, Barnum & Bailey circus day, will bring to Brainerd thousands of people. It will be the largest crowd and the largest circus Brainerd has ever had within its gates.

At Deerwood stores will close early tomorrow in order to permit proprietors and employees to go to Brainerd. At Crosby many are preparing to go by auto and others will take the morning train. The "Merry Widow" iron range train will have extra coaches. From Aitkin auto parties will make the trip and most of Aitkin will be here. Little Falls will forget its baseball disputes with Brainerd and will send a large delegation. From Akeley the Akeley auto club will make the tour. Pine first circus train comes chugging into town. Ever see a circus unload? Some years ago when the Barnum show was touring Europe, Prince Bismarck watched it detain. Then he said to the Kaiser:

"Hoch, Willie, I thought the German army had some discipline, but these guys can give us cards, spades and big casino and then win the pot without dealing from the bottom. Hadn't you better hire the boss and let him try to put a little system into the imperial cohorts?"

Be that as it may the detaining of the circus is carried out in a manner to make the average May-day mover turn green with envy.

There will be a parade in the morning at 10 o'clock and it is promised to be a "whooper." For one thing it will be interesting as a moving

River has asked for a special train. Staples is coming. At Pillager there is a pronounced "Let's quit work and go to the circus" feeling. Country newspapers within a radius of 50 miles from Brainerd are hustling to print early in order to let the printers and the devils see Barnum & Bailey.

It may surprise people of Brainerd when they hear that Wadena and Little Falls men, whose towns entertained Barnum & Bailey at other times, anticipate that Brainerd will draw from 5,000 to 8,000 visitors. Trains from the lakes were crowded today as the resorters thought it better to get home before the big rush started.

There will be one performance at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Stores of Brainerd will open at 5:30 and remain open until 10 P. M.

The Brainerd City band will give an open air concert of popular music at the depot park, Dr. F. J. Sykora having announced this treat for the benefit of the many visitors who will be in Brainerd until train time. The concert is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

At 6 P. M. the Bemidji U. C. T. council baseball team plays the Brainerd drummers at the Koering grounds. People will have a chance to see the game and also to hear the concert before returning home.

A Broncho Two-Reel Feature

'A Drummer of the Eighth'

This two reel war story sounds a deeply pathetic note at the close. It shows us in the beginning a small boy who wants to go to war. His parents will not let him do so, but he gets up in the night, finds his gun and goes out with the volunteers. The drummer boy is wounded and taken to the hospital. He writes home telling his parents to expect him soon after the war ends, but instead he is brought him in a coffin. The war scenes are fine, with tense close fighting in the trenches and over broad fields.

TO BOULEVARD SIXTH STREET

Improvement Proposed to Extend From Main Street to Beautiful Gregory Park

MANY CITIZENS CONTRIBUTING

$1,200 to be Raised for Two Street Intersections—Plan to be Submitted to Council

The idea of continuing the cement paving of North Sixth street from Main street to beautiful Gregory park, as championed by the Dispatch and many public spirited citizens, has found favor and a movement is now on foot to have the two blocks paved clear to the park. The street is 50 feet wide. In the center it is proposed to have a 10 foot boulevard and this will leave a 20 foot roadway on each side. The park board, it is proposed, will take charge of the boulevard strip.

A tentative sketch or plan has been drawn up and the whole plan will be submitted to the council for its consideration. There seems little objection on the part of property owners to continuing the paving to the park.

Two street intersections will have to be laid and as the general fund of the city will not stand such a levy, the money is being raised by private subscription.

"This is no begging proposition," said one of the citizens who is deeply interested in the improvement, and who, by the way, does not live on the street. "It should be a matter of city pride to have this street beautified in this manner and people all over Brainerd are contributing to have these intersections put in and which will insure paving from the depot to the park. Why J. C. Barber, who does not live in Brainerd but at his summer home on Nokay lake, gave $50.

"There is no impression so lasting as a first impression and many a traveler gains his first idea of Brainerd when he looks up Sixth street and sees the park. And many visitors, between trains, walk to the park. As one Sioux City, Iowa, man said to George A. Keene: 'I had no idea you had such a beautiful park in Brainerd.'"

To date $800 has been raised for street intersections and there is no doubt that the remaining $400 will soon be pledged. Then the whole proposition, carefully drawn up, will be submitted to the city council for its approval.

NOTICE

People at Crosby, Deerwood and other range towns, who want first class dress making can do no better than call at the Imperial Parlors, Imperial block, Brainerd. All work guaranteed satisfactory or no pay. Prices reasonable.

BUYS MILLINERY STORE

Mrs. George Terry, of Waterloo, Ia., Buys Mrs. J. K. Pearce's Millinery

Mrs. George Terry, of Waterloo, Iowa, an experienced milliner and business woman, has purchased the millinery and ladies furnishing stock of Mrs. J. K. Pearce, in the Pearce block and has taken a year lease of the store with the privilege of a three year renewal.

Mrs. Terry will inaugurate a sweeping clearance sale, and will discontinue the line of ladies furnishings. The summer stock of trimmed hats as well as untrimmed shapes for ladies, misses and children will be cleaned out regardless of cost.

The store is to be altered in various ways. Partitions are being taken out, the room enlarged and plumbing is to be installed.

A feature of interest to the ladies of Brainerd and vicinity will be the beauty parlor to be presided over by Mrs. C. M. Gobie, of Waterloo, Iowa. Here manicuring, shampooing, hair dressing and face massage will be done and scalp treatments given.

Mrs. Terry will also carry a large line of hair goods.

Mrs. Pearce, who was one of the prominent milliners of Brainerd for many years, will retire from business.

$50 REWARD

The Riverside Gun club offers a reward of $25 to any person or persons making complaint thereof, for the arrest and conviction of any person unlawfully carrying a gun and accompanied by a dog in any field or on grounds frequented by or in which game birds may be found.

It further offers a reward of $25 to any person giving information for the arrest and conviction of any person unlawfully shooting at or killing any game birds or deer, or for having such in their possession. Said reward pertaining to Crow Wing and Cass counties.

BARNUM & BAILEY SHOW TOMORROW

Parade at 10 O'clock to Have 500 Horses in Line—Five Bands—Other Big Features

ONE PERFORMANCE AT 2 P. M.

Show Starts With Cleopatra—Circus Has 3 Rings, 2 Stages, .. Quarter Mile Track

'Boys' who can still hark back to the old-time stunt with the water pail, and 'girls' who in other days clung to their mothers in awe while bespangled performers flirted with death, can romp to the show grounds tomorrow and see the latest and best development of the circus ideas as carried out by the Barnum & Bailey show. The 'boys' can take a long their sons, and the 'girls' their daughters and for three, happy glorious hours travel back over the road to yesterday. There is nothing like a circus. Its possibilities are limitless. It provides enjoyment, clean cut and refreshing.

But that is not all. It renews the springs of youth as nothing else can. It harks one back to the days when all things were real and worth while; when analysis was naught and when seeing was believing, and when seeing and believing was a delight that lasted for many days. There are circuses and circuses, but there is only one Barnum and Bailey's. It has been self-styled "the greatest show on earth." None has appeared to dispute this claim and this year's circus lives up more generously to its trademarked title than ever before, from all accounts.

There will be but few sleepy heads among the youngsters tomorrow morning. Kids that ordinarily kick, upon getting up at a reasonable hour to do the chores will sleep with one eye open tonight and be on hand early tomorrow morning when the horse fair with more than 500 horses in line. Then there will be open cages—a long string of elephants—two caravans of camels—five bands of music, including a woman's military brass band—ornate floats—gayly caparisoned horses with men and women riders—clowns, in fact, all the necessary ingredients used in the compounding of a first class circus cavalcade—only that there will be more and more of everything than ever before.

One performance will be given at 2 o'clock P. M. and this will be complete in every detail.

Tomorrow morning tickets may be bought at Central Drug store at no advance in prices.

BRAINERD, MECCA ON CIRCUS DAY

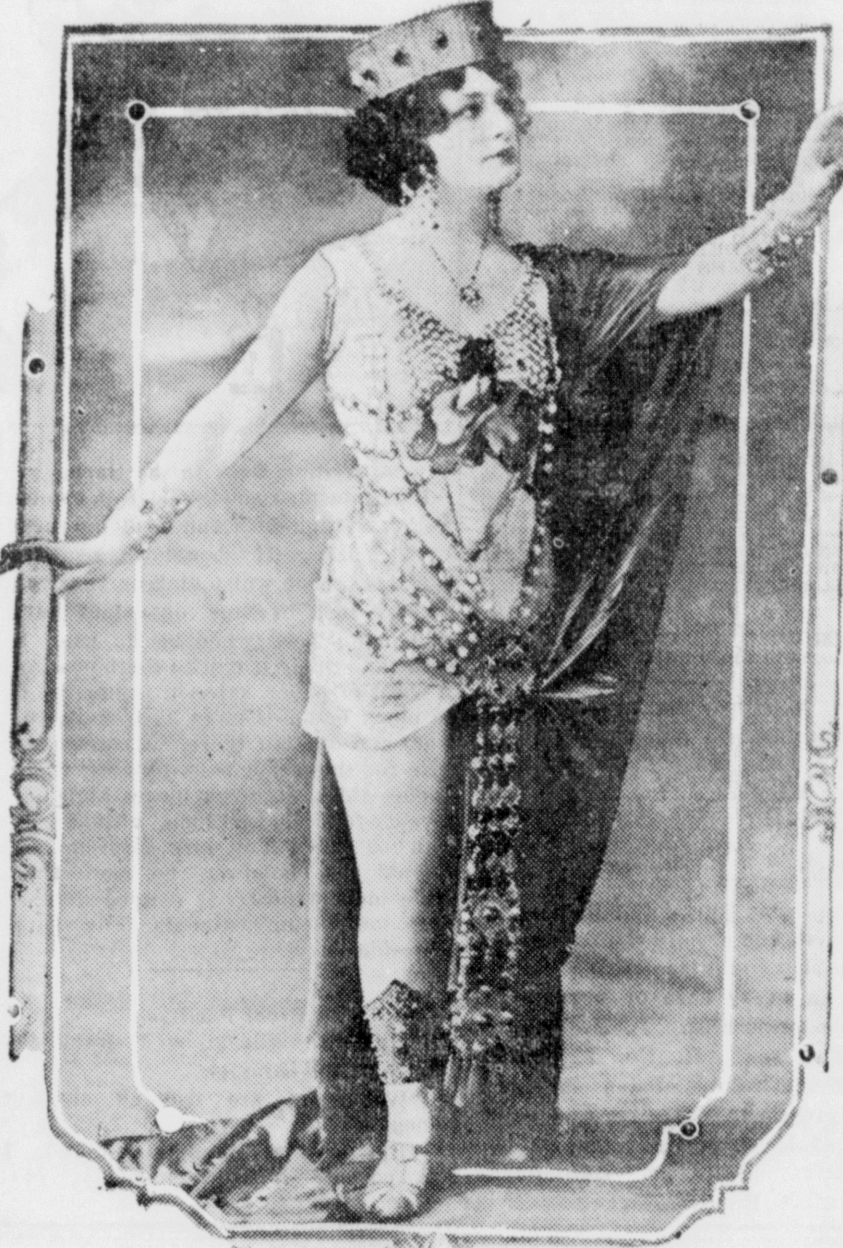

Stores Will be Closed in Deerwood From Noon—Pine River Wants a Special Train

CITY PREPARING FOR VISITORS

Brainerd City Band Will Give Concert at Depot Park in Evening—Ball Game 6 P. M.

Friday, July 25, Barnum & Bailey circus day, will bring to Brainerd thousands of people. It will be the largest crowd and the largest circus Brainerd has ever had within its gates.

At Deerwood stores will close early tomorrow in order to permit proprietors and employees to go to Brainerd. At Crosby many are preparing to go by auto and others will take the morning train. The "Merry Widow" iron range train will have extra coaches. From Aitkin auto parties will make the trip and most of Aitkin will be here. Little Falls will forget its baseball disputes with Brainerd and will send a large delegation. From Akeley the Akeley auto club will make the tour. Pine first circus train comes caugging into town. Ever see a circus unload? Some years ago when the Barnum show was touring Europe, Prince Bismarck watched it detrain. Then he said to the Kaiser:

Eugenia Silborn as Cleopatra

"Hoch, Willie, I thought the German army had some discipline, but these guys can give us cards, spades and big casino and then win the pot without dealing from the bottom. Hadn't you better hire the boss and let him try to put a little system into the imperial cohorts?"

Be that as it may the detraining of the circus is carried out in a manner to make the average May-day mover turn green with envy.

There will be a parade in the morning at 10 o'clock and it is promised to be a "whooper." For one thing it will be interesting as a moving

River has asked for a special train. Staples is coming. At Pillager there is a pronounced "Let's quit work and go to the circus" feeling. Country newspapers within a radius of 50 miles from Brainerd are hustling to print early in order to let the printers and the devils see Barnum & Bailey.

It may surprise people of Brainerd when they hear that Wadena and Little Falls men, whose towns entertained Barnum & Bailey at other times, anticipate that Brainerd will draw from 5,000 to 8,000 visitors. Trains from the lakes were crowded today as the resorts thought it better to get home before the big rush started.

There will be one performance at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Stores of Brainerd will open at 5:30 and remain open until 10 P. M.

The Brainerd City band will give an open air concert of popular music at the depot park, Dr. F. J. Sykora having announced this treat for the benefit of the many visitors who will be in Brainerd until train time. The concert is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

At 6 P. M. the Bemidji U. C. T. council baseball team plays the Brainerd drummers at the Koering grounds. People will have a chance to see the game and also to hear the concert before returning home.

Bus and Gray lines, all kinds of conveyances will be impressed for carrying people to the grounds.

"Alcohol ties queer kinks in the brain," remarked a minister when the subject of intoxicants arose. "As I was going home on a recent Saturday evening I noticed a fellow walking with slow and unsteady gravity just ahead, mumbling to himself.

"As I overtook him I caught his words, and this is what he was repeating over and over to himself, anxious, no doubt, that he shouldn't forget his line of defense:

"'Been drunk an' ain't been home for three days, hie! Goin' home now, 'n' if dinner ain't ready I'm goin' t' raise old Harry. If 'tis ready I ain't goin' t' eat a god-darned thing!'"—New York Times.

Rid Your Children of Worms

You can change fretful, ill-tempered children into healthy, happy youngsters, by ridding them of worms. Tossing, rolling, grinding of teeth, crying out while asleep, accompanied with intense thirst, pains in the stomach and bowels, feverishness and bad breath, are symptoms that indicate worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, expels the worms, regulates the bowels, restores your children to health and happiness. Mrs. J. A. Brisbin, of Elgin, Ill., says: "I have used Kickapoo Worm Killer for years, and entirely rid my children of worms. I would not be without it." Guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail. Price 25c. CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OF THE TOULOUIMOE MINING COMPANY.

We the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter Fifty-eight (58) of the Revised Laws of Minnesota for 1905, and amendments thereof, do hereby associate ourselves as a body corporate, and do hereby adopt the following certificate of incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be Toulouimoe Mining Company. The general nature of its business shall be to acquire, own, improve, develop, sell, lease and convey lands and tenements or any right, title, interest or privilege therein, to search, explore and prospect for, ores and minerals therein or thereupon, and to carry on the business of mining in all its branches on said lands.

The principal place of transacting the business of this corporation shall be in the village of Deerwood, in the County of Crow Wing, Minnesota.

ARTICLE II.

The time for the commencement of this corporation shall be August 1st, 1913, and the period of its duration shall be thirty years.

ARTICLE III.

The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation are: Anders G. Hovde, of the City of Superior, Douglas County, Wisconsin; James E. Pederson, of the City of Superior, Douglas County, Wisconsin; and Harvey T. Greenlaw, of the City of Superior, Douglas County, Wisconsin.

ARTICLE IV.

The management of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors composed of not less than three and not more than seven members. The names and addresses of the first board of directors are: Anders G. Hovde, Superior, Wisconsin; James E. Pederson, Superior, Wisconsin; Charles W. Potts, Deerwood, Minnesota; A. L. Litchell, Superior, Wisconsin; and Fred W. Koehler, Superior, Wisconsin. The above named directors shall hold their offices aforesaid until the next annual meeting of the corporation to be held on the second Tuesday in January, 1914, at which time and annually thereafter a board of directors shall be elected from and by the stockholders of this corporation. The annual meeting of this corporation shall be held at its principal place of business, on the second Tuesday in January in each year. Immediately after the election of directors, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the directors shall meet and elect from their number a President and Vice President, and from their number, or from the stockholders, a Secretary and a Treasurer. Any officers except that of President and Vice President may be held by one person. The directors shall hold their respective offices until their successors have been duly elected and entered upon the discharge of their duties. Each meeting of the stockholders and of the board of directors shall be held at this corporation's general office at Deerwood, in the County of Crow Wing, Minnesota, on the 13th day of January, 1914, at one o'clock P. M.

ARTICLE V.

The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) which shall be paid in, in money or property or both, in such manner and at such times and in such amounts as the board of directors shall order. The capital stock shall be divided into five thousand (5,000) shares, each of which shall be of the par value of Ten Dollars ($10.00).

ARTICLE VI.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject shall be the sum of One hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000).

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this 17th day of July, A. D. 1913.

9 Cent Sale

The Greatest this City Has Ever Known

WE WILL surprise and delight all Bargain Seekers, whether they be men, women or children, with values in fresh, clean, seasonable merchandise that will surpass anything ever before attempted.

We have been preparing for this sale for a long time. We have been keeping it "under cover" as we wished to complete every detail of our plans before we told our friends and customers.

Our plans are completed and the greatest 9 Cent Sale will be held at our store on the dates given below. You are invited to visit our store and share in the feast of Bargains we have prepared for you.

We have the goods as advertised and will hand them out to our customers as long as they last, for 9 cts., but you must remember that values like these won't last long and some of the late comers are liable to be disappointed—so make your visit as early as possible.

Remember the date and be on hand early to get your share of the extreme values we will offer in this—The Greatest 9 Cent Sale Ever Known.

Sale begins Wednesday, July 23

Ends Saturday, July 26

A Writing Desk in the Barn.

Every farmer should have a combination writing desk and medicine chest in his barn. It should be securely fastened about waist high on the wall or on a shelf in some convenient place and kept closed when not in use. It will save many a trip to the house for a sheet of paper, salve or liniment. It is much better than to have one thing here and another there. A convenient size for this chest is as follows: Eight inches thick, eighteen inches high and twenty-four inches long, although it can be made any size desired. It should not, however, be more than nine inches thick. It can be divided into many compartments.—Farm and Fireside.

Proof Positive.

"My wife will know I drank too much at the banquet."

"Why, you are walking straight enough."

"But look at the bum umbrella I picked out."—Pittsburgh Post.

The Beginning of Football.

The first reference to what may possibly be the game of football is to be found in a proclamation of Edward III., 1314, when the people were forbidden "to hustle over large balls." The present name was first used in a statute of Edward III., 1347, when "football" in London streets was declared illegal.—London Reader.

Pleasant Company.

"Alcohol ties queer kinks in the brain," remarked a minister when the subject of intoxicants arose. "As I was going home on a recent Saturday evening I noticed a fellow walking with slow and unsteady gravity just ahead, mumbling to himself.

"As I overtook him I caught his words, and this is what he was repeating over and over to himself, anxious, no doubt, that he shouldn't forget his line of defense:

"'Been drunk an' ain't been home for three days, hic! Goin' home now, 'n' if dinner ain't ready I'm goin' t' raise old Harry. If 'tis ready I ain't goin' t' eat a god-darned thing!'"—New York Times.

"Oh, I know a few things," said the haughty senior.

"Well, you've got nothing on me," retorted the freshman. "Guess I know as few things as anybody."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Rid Your Children of Worms

You can change fretful, ill-tempered children into healthy, happy youngsters, by ridding them of worms. Tossing, rolling, grinding of teeth, crying out while asleep, accompanied with intense thirst, pains in the stomach and bowels, feverishness and bad breath, are symptoms that indicate worms. Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, expels the worms, regulates the bowels, restores your children to health and happiness. Mrs. J. A. Brislin, of Elgin, Ill., says: "I have used Kickapoo Worm Killer for years, and entirely rid my children of worms. I would not be without it." Guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail. Price 25c. CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION OF THE TOULOUMOE MINING COMPANY.

We the undersigned, for the purpose of forming a corporation under and pursuant to the provisions of Chapter Fifty-eight (58) of the Revised Laws of Minnesota for 1905, and amendments thereof, do hereby associate ourselves as a body corporate, and do hereby adopt the following certificate of incorporation:

ARTICLE I.

The name of this corporation shall be Touloumoe Mining Company. The general nature of its business shall be to acquire, own, improve, develop, sell, lease and convey lands and tenements or any right, title, interest or privilege therein; to search, explore and prospect for, ores and minerals therein or thereupon, and to carry on the business of mining in all its branches on said lands.

The principal place of transacting the business of this corporation shall be in the village of Brainerd in the County of Crow Wing, Minnesota.

ARTICLE II.

The time for the commencement of this corporation shall be August 1st, 1913, and the period of its duration shall be thirty years.

ARTICLE III.

The names and places of residence of the persons forming this corporation are: Anders G. Hoyde of the City of Superior, Douglas County, Wisconsin; James E. Pederson of the City of Superior, Douglas County, Wisconsin; and Harvey T. Greenlaw of the City of Superior, Douglas County, Wisconsin.

The management of this corporation shall be vested in a board of directors composed of not less than three and not more than seven members. The names and addresses of the first board of directors are: Anders G. Hoyde, Superior, Wisconsin; Charles W. Potts, Deerwood, Minnesota; Fahr A. Lienell, Superior, Wisconsin; and Fred W. Koehler, Superior, Wisconsin. The above named directors shall hold their offices aforesaid until their successors are elected. The corporation to be held on the second Tuesday in January, 1914, at which time and annually thereafter a board of directors shall be elected from and by the stockholders of this corporation. The annual meeting of this corporation shall be held at its principal place of business, on the second Tuesday in January in each year. Immediately after the election of directors, or as soon thereafter as practicable, the directors shall meet and elect from their number a President and Vice President, and from their number, or from the stockholders, a Secretary and a Treasurer. Any officers except that of President and Vice President may be held by one person. The directors and officers of this corporation shall hold their respective offices until their successors have been duly elected and entered upon the discharge of their duties. The first meeting of the stockholders shall be held at the principal place of business of the corporation, on the 13th day of January, 1914, at one o'clock p. m.

ARTICLE V.

The amount of the capital stock of this corporation shall be Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000) which shall be paid in, in money or property, by each stockholder at such times and in such amounts as the board of directors shall order. The said stock shall be divided into five thousand (5,000) shares, each of which share shall be of the par value of Ten Dollars ($10.00).

ARTICLE VI.

The highest amount of indebtedness or liability to which this corporation shall at any time be subject shall be the sum of One-hundred Thousand Dollars ($100,000).

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands this 17th day of July, A. D. 1913.

JAMES E. PEDERSON, HARVEY T. GREENLAW

In presence of H. V. GARD, E. BROTHERTON

State of Wisconsin, County of Douglas.

On this 17th day of July, 1913, personally appeared before me a notary public in and for said county, Anders G. Hoyde, James E. Pederson and Harvey T. Greenlaw, to me known to be the persons named in and who executed the foregoing certificate of incorporation, and each acknowledged that he executed the same as his free act and deed for the uses and purposes therein expressed.

H. V. GARD, Notary Public, Douglas County, Wisconsin.
